Class Of 2003

Good Luck!!

Julie Abramowski

The great aim of education is not knowledge but action. -Herbert Spencer-

Class of 2003

Julie at FDL homecoming with her date Charles. Posing in the hallway with her friend Sheree. Julie in the very beginning, just cute! Good Luck!

Jennifer Ammesmaki

The greatest mistake you can make in life is to be continually fearing you will make one. -Elbert Hubbard-

Class Of 2003

Thoughtful and scientific at the Science Fair. Jen and her acquaintance Carmen posing together, the way friends do. And it all started back when.....! Good Luck!

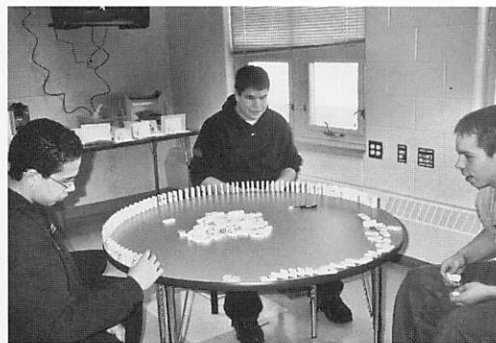

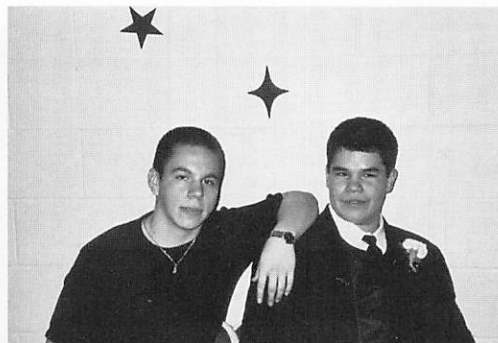

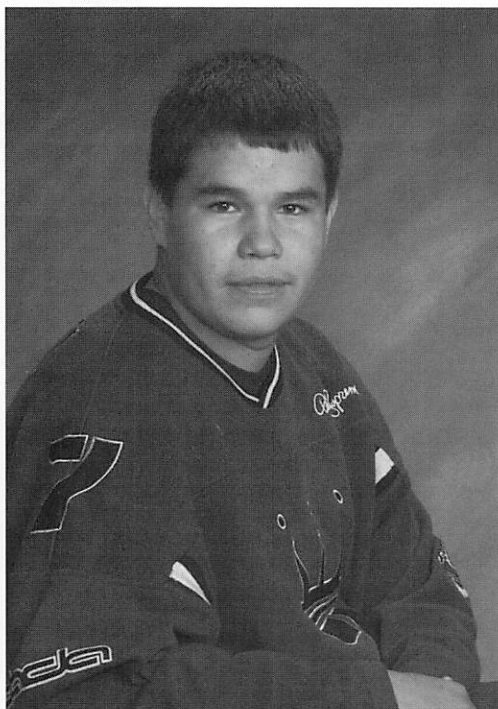

Danny Barney

The direction in which education starts a man will determine his future life -Plato

Class Of 2003

Danny all dressed up and looking mighty sharp at prom. He always thought he was the dominator at dominoes. Danny is trying to show off them beauty bucks like he got them. Good Luck!

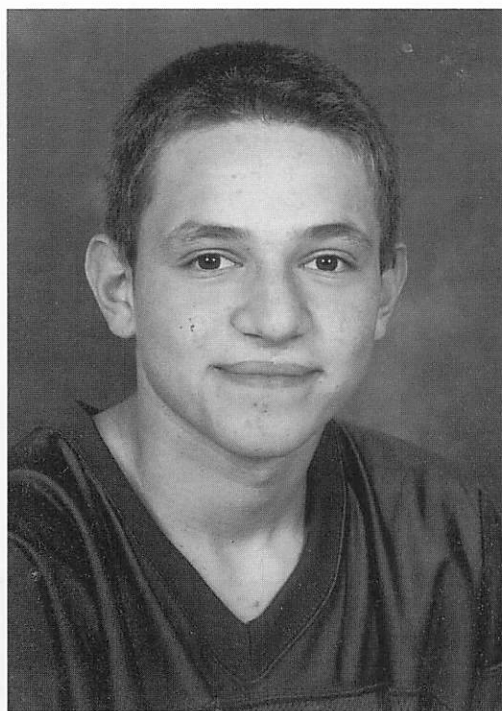

Anthony DeFoe

I am like an onion, I have layers -Shrek

Originally, Class Of 2003

Check out this fly guy with his beautiful date Cindi, they're on their way to prom. Anthony AKA Slim, being a generous helper for a community feast. Aren't you just the cutest little thing?! Good Luck!

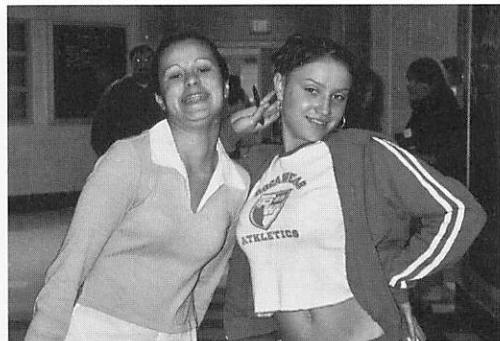

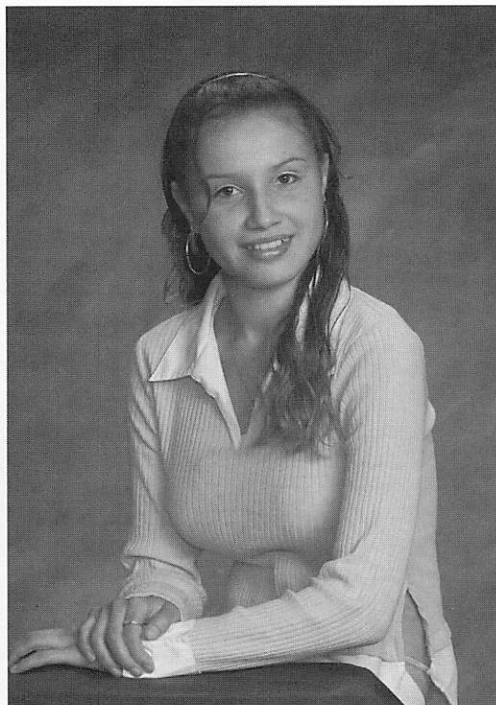

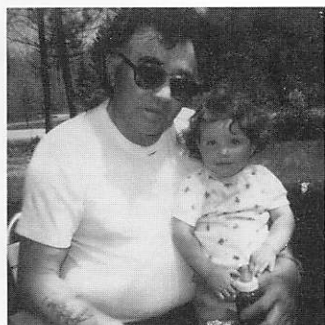

Sheree DeFoe

As for the future, your task is not to foresee it, but to enable it. - Saint-Exupery Antoine

Class Of 2003

Sheree is always looking beautiful along with her friend Julie at her side. Sheree and Gramps. Good Luck in your future!

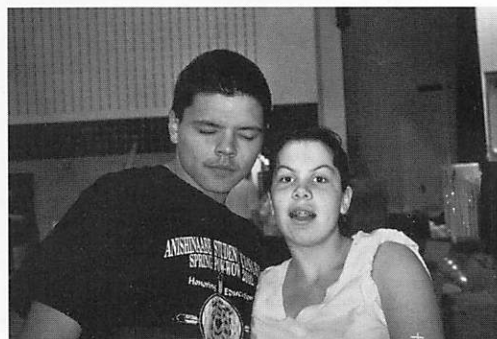

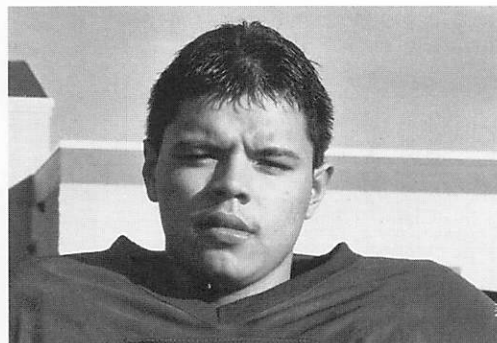

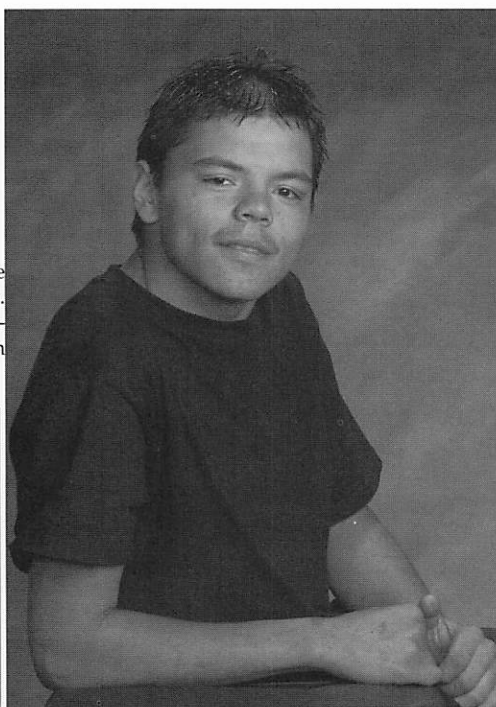

Ernie Diver

I never think of the future - it comes soon enough. -Albert Einstein

Class Of 2003

Ernie AKA June has got his game face on. Sleeping while standing. Now isn't this one innocent looking child, he looks ready to take on the world. Good Luck

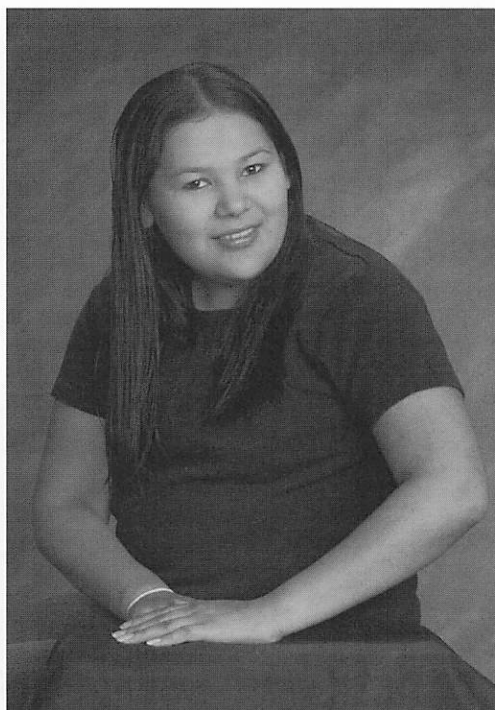

Carmen Jones

We know what we are, But not what we may be. -Shakespeare-

Class Of 2003

Say Cheese, Carmen and Jen! And then there was high school's volleyball setter. Born and raised in Canada, or was it Texas?! Good Luck!

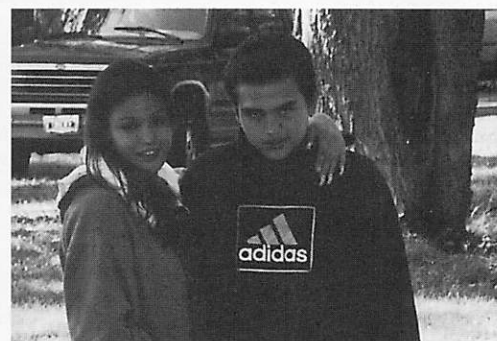

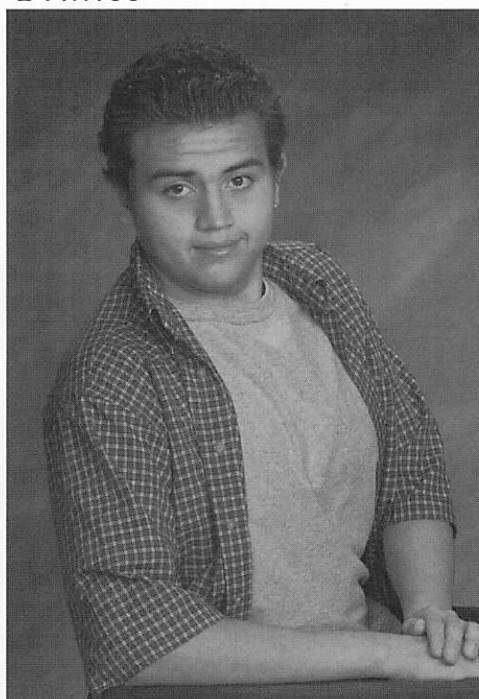

Vincent Jordain

To accomplish great things, we must dream as well as act.

-Anatole France-

Class Of 2003

Vincent and Maggie on their way to class. Vincent and Brittany hanging out outside. Vincent by himself, before girls were even on his mind. Good Luck!

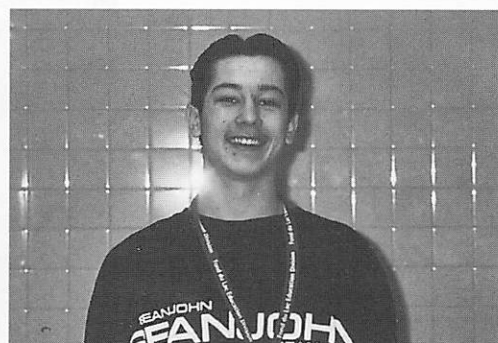

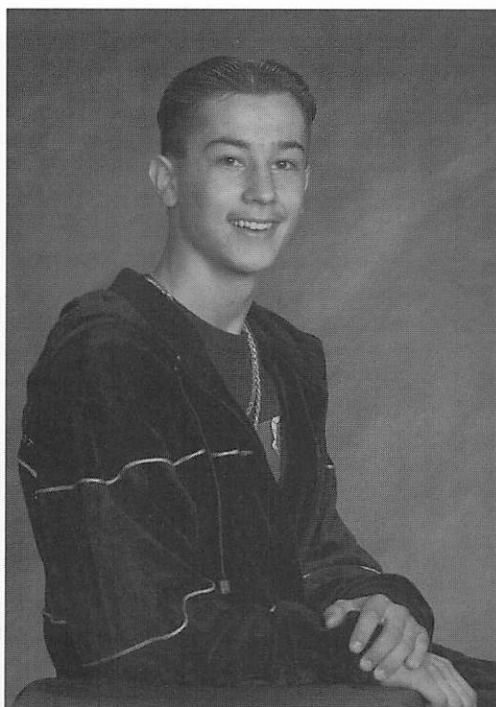

John Maio

What you act like when no one else is around, is who you really are.

Class Of 2003

John's not ashamed to smile for any pictures. Say cheese! It's nice to know that this guy once had a little sweet side to him, just look at him! Good Luck!

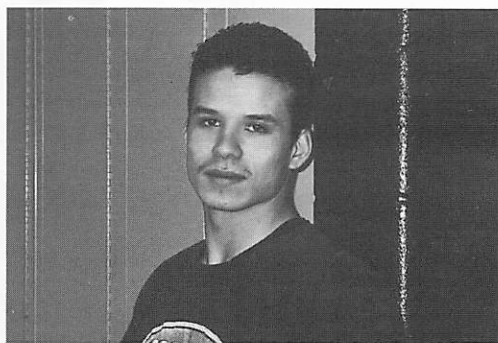

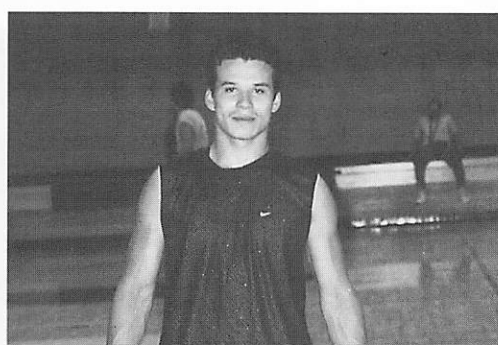

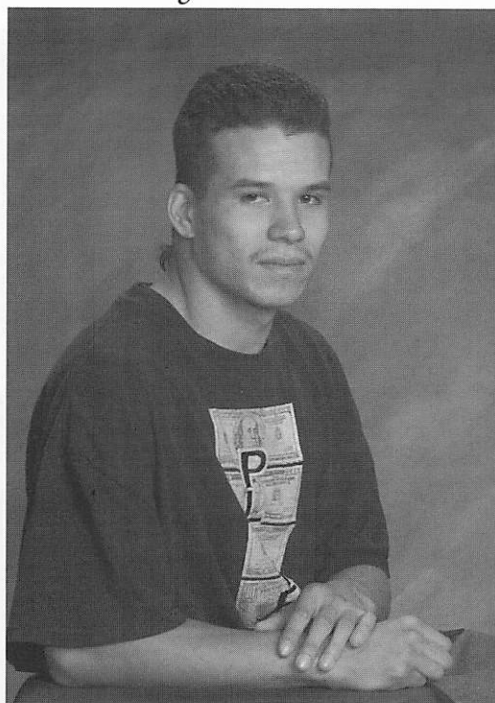

Bear Mcmillen

No one can give you authority. But if you act like you have it, others will believe you do. -Karin Ireland-

Class Of 2003

Macho Mcmillen being sporty in the gym, and being innocent in the halls. His attention isn't on the camera, but he's still smiling! Good Luck!

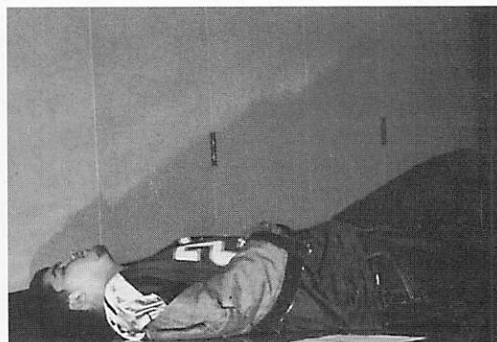

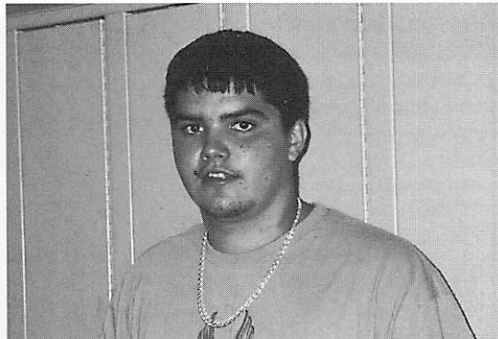

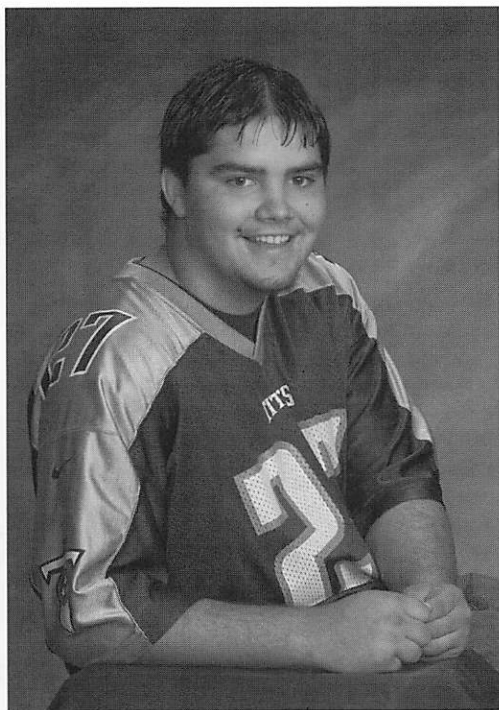

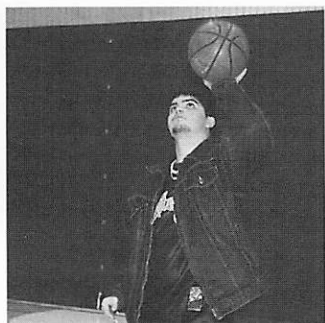

Eric Murray

Look not mournfully into the past. It comes not back again. Wisely improve the present. It is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy future, without fear. -Henry Wadsworth Longfellow-

Class Of 2003

Eric takes a break from all the hallway chattering to take a picture. You're supposed to be physical in Phy. Ed. not sleeping! Now basketball is physical. Good Luck!

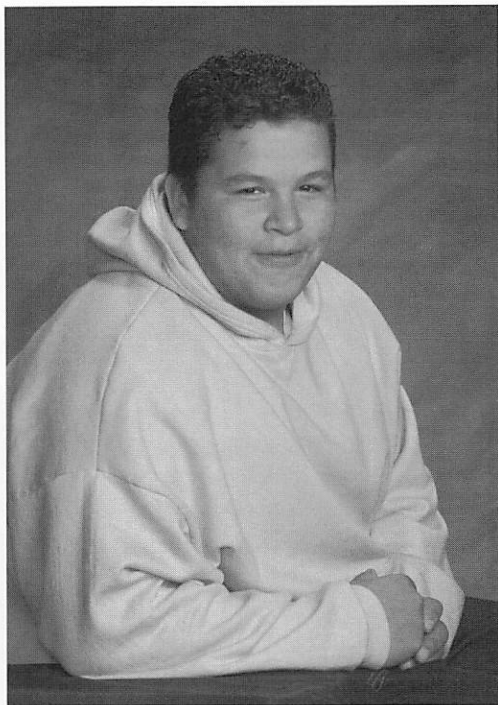

Jarvis Paro

Don't be afraid of the space between your dreams and reality. If you can dream it, you can make it so. -Belva Davis-

Class Of 2003

Jarvis AKA Chubby used to be so cute and innocent, what happened?! Even today, he still doesn't have nothing but love for his family. Million $ smile. Good Luck!

Samantha Reynolds

Knowledge is like the wind, once obtaining it you can go anywhere.-Yellow Horse-

Class Of 2003

Sam working happy and hard in her media class. Looking sporty and ready to go smash that ball. Little baby Sam back when it all started. Good Luck!

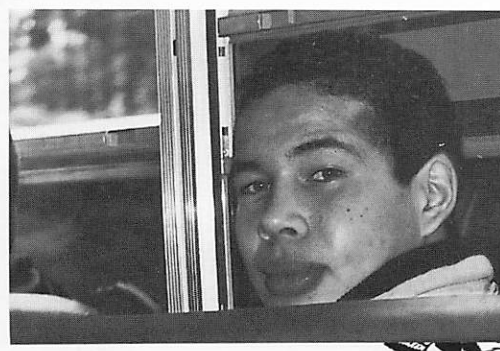

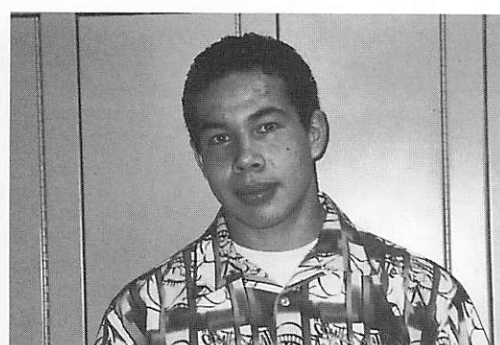

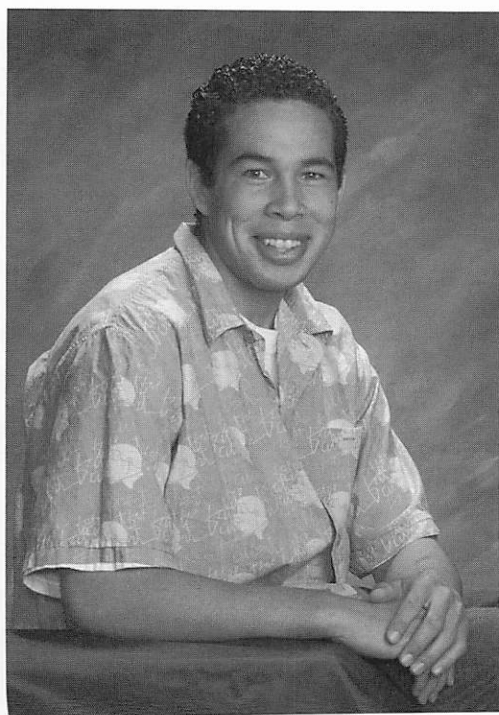

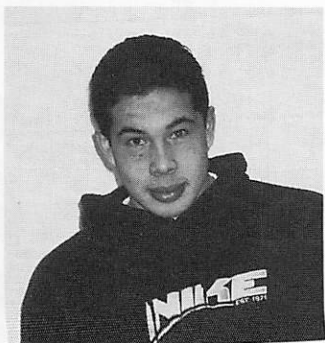

Brittan Smith

Things are always at their best in the beginning. -Pascal Blaise-

Class Of 2003

The many moods of Brittan - on the bus, in class, and backing up the lockers. Good Luck!

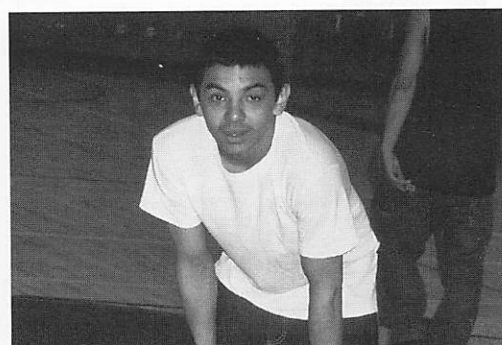

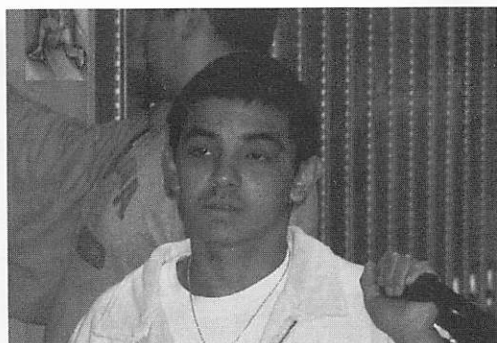

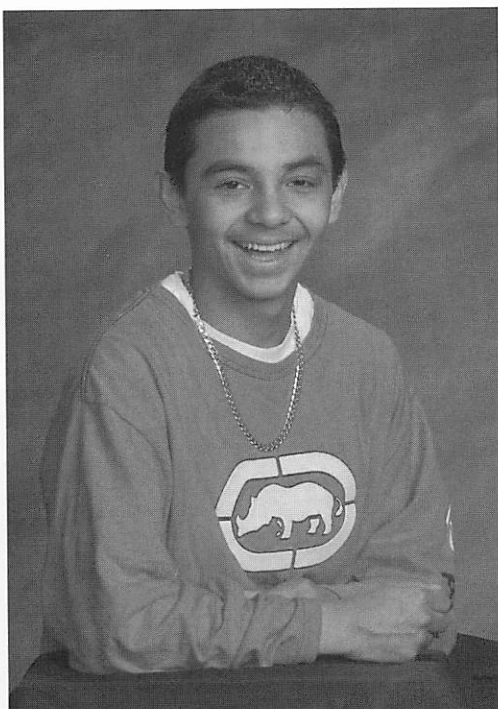

Louis St.Clair

Life ain't complicated, its only what you make it to be -2Pac-

Class Of 2003

'Ballin' it up in the gym. Louis and his girl Yvonne staying warm out in the cold. Be on your way to class now. Good Luck in what you do!

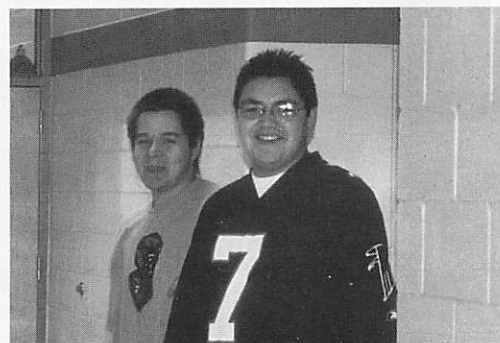

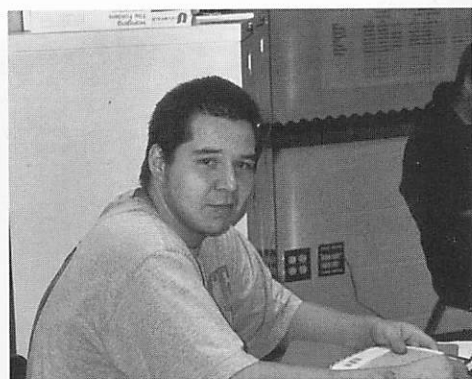

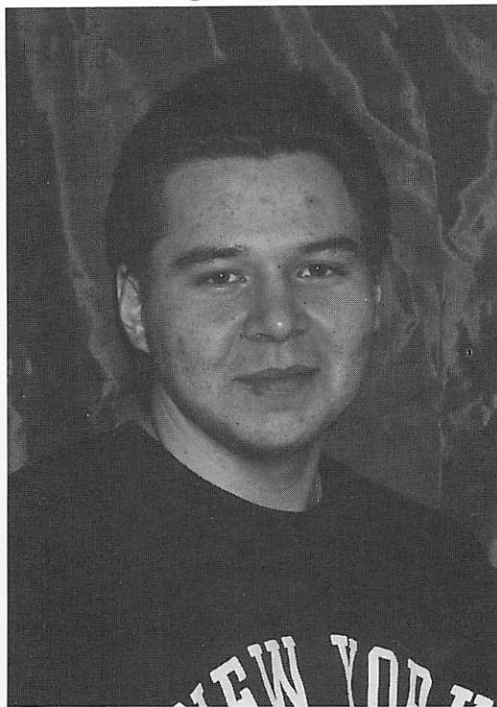

Joe Wichern

There is an important difference between giving up and letting go.-Jessica Hatchigan-

Class Of 2003

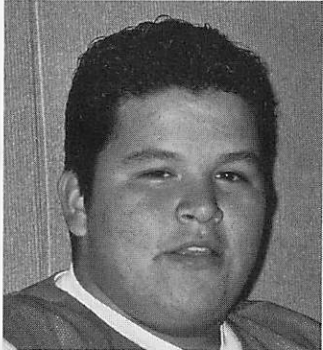

Joe and his cuz Richard chillin in the hallway. He can pose if he wants to, that's if he wants to. Good Luck!

A Night To Remember

Prom at the Fond du Lac Ojibwe School is always a night to remember. The fun, the magic, the memories. It was the first prom in our new school.

It took place in the school's new gym and it looked fabulous.

Some staff, and students spent all of Peter Dufault Day building the archways, the gates, and putting it all together.

For the people who did attend prom they had a great time and made sure it was a night to remember.

Fond du Lac's 2002-2003 Pow-wow

The Fond du Lac Pow-wow was the biggest in years. Almost everyone danced. People from different schools and from different tribes came to celebrate the 2002-2003 pow-wow.

This was the first year in the new school. A lot of people had fun. There was a lot of good food and a lot of spectators.

Many styles of dancers came like jingle dress, fancy shawl, traditional dance, grass dance, men's traditional, and men's fancy dance. Everyone did a very good job. Everyone danced very well!

Dancers from all over came to join the 2002 pow-wow and celebrate.
